

Painted Pianos in Downtown Walnut Creek!

Walnut Creek, CA. (August 22, 2019) - Walnut Creek Downtown is proud to announce a new musical art project called, "Painted Pianos!" Eight pianos will be donated by Steinway Piano Gallery and hand-painted by local artists on site, in downtown Walnut Creek and the Center for Community Arts' Shadelands campus courtyard. Artists will paint their assigned pianos September 3-8 & leave them for the public to enjoy. The pianos will be strategically placed for the public to play September 9-October 18.

Live performances by professional &/or special guests will take place every Tuesday (September 10, 17, 24 & October 1, 8, 15) from 12-1pm at three locations:
1655 N. Main St., 1501 Locust St. 1328 N. Main St

The project goal is to bring community members together to create musical memories in downtown Walnut Creek! A collaborative effort presented by Walnut Creek Downtown, the City of Walnut Creek and Steinway Piano Gallery.

Website link: <http://www.walnutcreekdowntown.com/walnut-creek-downtown-events/walnut-creek-downtown-programs/local-art>

Contact: Kathy Hemmenway, Executive Director, Walnut Creek Downtown
kathy@walnutcreekdowntown.com or 925-933-6778